

Alison DeTuncq, incumbent

Alison DeTuncq is the president/CEO of University of Virginia Community Credit Union in Charlottesville, Va. She has overseen the growth of credit union assets from $130 million to $950 million as well as the expansion to 20 branches, including four student-run branches at area high schools and Piedmont Virginia Community College, and employs more than 260 staff members. She began her career at the credit union as a branch manager, later serving as vice president of operations. She also serves as president and sits on the board of managers for Member Options, LLC, the mortgage lending subsidiary of the credit union.

Ms. DeTuncq currently serves on the board of directors for Vizo Financial Corporate Credit Union. She served on the Virginia Credit Union League's budget and dues committee and is past president of the Central Virginia Chapter. In 2014, Ms. DeTuncq received the highest service honor awarded by the Virginia Credit Union League for her many contributions to the credit union industry. She continues to serve as a member of the league's Estonia Partnership Committee, which works jointly with the World Council of Credit Unions to aid the growing credit union system in the Baltic nation of Estonia.

As a civic leader in her community, Ms. DeTuncq serves on the board of directors for the Piedmont Virginia Community College Foundation and the Charlottesville Regional Chamber of Commerce, where she has been a member of the board of directors since 2013. She also served on the board for the Albermarle Housing Improvement Program (AHIP), as chairman of the finance committee and the United Way – Thomas Jefferson Area, as campaign chair.

Ms. DeTuncq was appointed by the governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia in August 2013 to serve as the Culpeper District representative of the Commonwealth Transportation Board (CTB). The 17-member CTB establishes the administration policies for Virginia's transportation system and allocates highway funding to specific projects, locates routes and provides funding for public transportation.

Ms. DeTuncq holds a master's degree in public administration and bachelor's degree from James Madison University, Harrisonburg, Va.

Ms. DeTuncq believes her personal philosophy for serving members, her passion for credit unions and her extensive experience in the industry make her a strong candidate for a board position. "I am very proud to be part of such an outstanding Corporate and would be honored to have the opportunity to contribute to its continued success."
