

Genice DeCorte

Genice DeCorte is the CEO of HealthShare Credit Union in Greensboro, N.C. She has served in this capacity since 2006. Prior to her current role, Ms. DeCorte was the CEO of Lee County Postal Employees Credit Union and assistant credit manager at Fairwinds Credit Union.

Professionally, Ms. DeCorte currently serves as the discussion board leader for CUNA's Small Credit Union Committee and chairperson of the Small Credit Union Roundtable. She has also been a part of the North Piedmont Chapter of Credit Unions, as well as the Awards Committee, Dues Taskforce Committee and Resolutions Committee for the Carolinas Credit Union League.

She has also held community volunteer positions with the Lenox Park Homeowners Association, St. Pius X Catholic Church.

Ms. DeCorte holds a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration majoring in finance from the University of Central Florida, and completed the Finance Consumer Lending Management School Volunteer Achievement program. She also has certifications in credit union accounting and risk management and insurance.

With over 32 years in the credit union movement under her belt, Ms. DeCorte believes her experience with all sizes of credit unions and her expertise in finance, accounting, strategic planning, operations and lending make her a qualified candidate for the Vizo Financial board of directors. She states, "My ultimate goal is to provide support and guidance that is in line with Vizo [Financial]'s goal in helping your credit union succeed through their back office solutions."
