

Jeff Chelius, incumbent

Jeff Chelius is the chief financial officer of Riverfront Federal Credit Union, Reading, Pa. He is also a member of Vizo Financial's board of directors. Prior to becoming CFO in 2000, Mr. Chelius served as the credit union's controller, as well as a credit union auditor for RKL CPAs.

In addition to his financial positions, Mr. Chelius has overseen human resources, credit and debit cards, courtesy pay and ATM responsibilities for Riverfront FCU.

Mr. Chelius earned his Bachelor of Science in business administration, with a concentration in accounting, from Shippensburg University, Shippensburg, Pa. He has also been a certified public accountant (CPA) since 1993, and is a member of the Association of International Certified Professional Accountants.

Mr. Chelius has given his time many community organizations, including Berks Advocates Against Violence, Small Business Resource Association, Wilson School District and Glad Tiding Church.

Mr. Chelius credits his whole-hearted support of the credit union movement and the "people helping people" mission as his greatest reasons for seeking re-election. He wants to see credit unions continue to thrive and use his passion, as well as his understanding of various operational functions, to help them do just that. In his own words, "I believe a board member of any organization should be passionate about the cause of the organization for which they serve. I have that passion and drive for the credit union industry and also for serving the Corporate in a board capacity."
