Vizo Financial Shares Concern for Community with 2022 Day of Service

Greensboro, N.C. (October 11, 2022) – Vizo Financial Corporate Credit Union brought the credit union movement’s seventh cooperative principle of “concern for community” to life with its annual Day of Service on October 10, 2022. Each year on the Day of Service, Vizo Financial employees volunteer their time and efforts at various charities and organizations throughout Central Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh, Pa., Greensboro, N.C., and Columbia, S.C.

In total, 83 Vizo Financial staff members participated in this special day and lent a helping hand with assembling care kits for children, landscaping, organizing and packaging food donations, preparing meals for the underserved, clearing storage areas, collecting trash and more in service to the following organizations:

- American Cancer Society
- Backpack Beginnings
- Bethesda Mission
- Caitlin’s Smiles
- Central Pennsylvania Food Bank
- Children’s Miracle Network Hospitals at Penn State Health Children’s Hospital
- Hello Neighbor
- Hershey Gardens
- Hospice of Central Pennsylvania
- Love the Hill
- Oliver Gospel Mission
- Second Harvest Food Bank
- The Caring Cupboard
- The Cracked Pot

“For the first time since 2019, we were able to hold our Day of Service in the manner we intended – in person, putting in physical, hands-on volunteer hours to make a difference for some truly incredible organizations in our communities,” said David Brehmer, Vizo Financial’s president and CEO. “It felt so good to be able to gather again and provide services for those in need. This is what credit union concern for community is all about, and it’s an all-around rewarding experience.”

“There’s almost no way to describe the sense of compassion and gratification that our Day of Service brings, not only to our employees, but also to the organizations and the people we are working to help,” said Erin Doan, diversity, equity and inclusion director for Vizo Financial. “As credit unions, our communities mean the world to us, and the Day of Service is just one way to further our mission of people helping people.”
