Vizo Financial Holds Second Virtual Payments Conference in 2021

Greensboro, N.C. (October 28, 2021) – The future of payments came alive through a wealth of education at Vizo Financial’s 2021 Payments Conference on October 19-20, 2021. The conference focused education on financial payment technology, faster payments, ACH and international services.

The conference featured five experts from a variety of payment-related organizations, including:

- Amy Smith, The Clearing House
- Dave DeFazio, StrategyCorps
- Jessica Lelii, Vizo Financial
- Kimberly Rector, Macha
- Stephen Kuhl, Western Union Business Solutions

“We welcome any opportunity to provide our members with top-notch education that is not only relevant, but also valuable to help them be competitive and successful in the financial industry,” said Jaime Agostino, director of marketing and business development for Vizo Financial. “This was the second year we’ve held the conference virtually and the turnout was fantastic, as we utilized an event portal that allowed our attendees to network and start conversations with other attendees.”

Attendees also reviewed the conference in a positive light, saying:

“All the sessions were very informative. I learn something new every year.”

“All information was relevant and interesting, and each speaker kept my attention.”

“Very informative and will definitely help the future of our credit union.”

“Overall, it was a wonderful and successful way to bring pertinent payments-related education to credit unions in a safe and convenient way,” said Agostino.

Vizo Financial’s 2022 Payments Conference will take place next October.
